

We cordially invite you to attend the CEE Philosophy Conference organized within the project On What There Is: Varieties of Realism (ID#15637) at the Faculty of Arts and Letters, Catholic University in Ruzomberok

VARIETIES OF REALISM/ANTI-REALISM

June 5 – 7, 2013

With the generous support of the John Templeton Foundation

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Prof. Dr. Daniel Cohnitz, University of Tartu, Estonia

Prof. Dr. Ladislav Kvasz, Charles University, Prague, Czech Rep.

Prof. Dr. Jaroslav Peregrin, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

VARIETIES OF REALISM/ANTI-REALISM

June 5 – 7, 2013

SPEAKERS AND PAPERS (in alphabetical order)

Banovsky, Juraj:	Some Notes on Instrumental Realism
Belak, Andrej:	What You Get is What You Should Have Postulated: On the Utility of Critical Realism within Applied Social Science
Cohnitz, Daniel:	Verbal Disputes in Philosophy and their Role in Arguments for Deflationism
Demuth, Andrej:	What is a Color? Short Discussion on Nature of Colors and their Ontological Status
Drobnak, Matej:	Theory of Naturalness: Is the Truth Out There?
Hensel, Witold M.:	Will to Refer, or How Appeals to Reference Can Weaken an Argument for Scientific Realism
Hrkt, Jan	Scruton's Aesthetic Non-Realism (Advantages and Challenges)
Karaba, Miroslav:	A View of Scientific Realism and its Implications in the Philosophy of Science
Koren, Ladislav:	Underdetermination, Scepticism, and Realism
Kvasz, Ladislav:	Instrumental Realism
Marvan, Tomas:	God's Eye View?
Peregrin, Jaroslav:	Can Pragmatism Steer between Metaphysical Realism and Relativism?
Poslajko, Krzysztof:	Causal Inefficiency and Irrealism
Vacek, Martin:	Extended Modal Realism
Zelenak, Eugen:	A "Realism" of Habit